

Working in the County Attorney's Office isn't employment – it's an adventure. We interact with people and issues that most folks only get to see on television and read about in books, but for us it's real time and real life. This Office is always stimulating, always on the cutting edge, and always trying to make a difference in the quality of life for the Community.

What Former Interns Have To Say:

"The two things I like most about my experience working for the County Attorney's office are trust and responsibility. I was assigned to important cases on my first day of work and, since then, I have been given numerous chances to present my work to experienced prosecutors who are consistently responsive and willing to guide my progress."

"The Coconino County Attorney has provided me with the most interesting and challenging work that I've faced throughout my three years in law school. It's one of the best places to work. Everyone in the office is approachable and willing to take the time and discuss any problems you are having with a research project."

*Serena Serassio
